The latest mails from Utah brings us the annual message of Brigham Young to the Mormon Legislature. The message discusses the question of the admission of Utah into the Union. He thinks that the "rights and privileges" of the Mormons have been ignored by the general government, and he insists that they shall be admitted. He represents the condition of the territory to be flourishing under the beneficent institution of polygamy.

The Washington Chronicle is the "wrathiest" newspaper in the country against President Johnson. Its course, is indeed, incendiary and revolutionary. It declares that the "two houses of Congress are deliberating with halts around their necks," and other such nonsense.

Dispatches to the State Department indicate that the emigration from Europe to the United States will this year exceed any previous one. All the German ports especially are filling up with persons desirous of securing a passage.

A new method of fertilizing has been brought out by two members of the agricultural academy at Bonn, which consists in the distribution of a liberal supply of air beneath the surface of a field.

A Connecticut man has applied for a patent for a labor saving Constitutional—amendment scheme warranted to turn out thirteen hundred amendments per hour.

The decision of the House of Representatives which ousted Mr. Voorhees from his seat, deprives the country of an eloquent advocate of right, in many particulars.

At the municipal election in Georgetown, D. C., on Monday, those who approve of the policy of the President were elected by large majorities.

Railroads.

ORANGE & ALEXANDRIA R. R.

On and after MONDAY, February 12th, two daily trains will run between Washington and Lynchburg, connecting at Gordonsville, with Va. Central R. R. trains to and from Richmond as follows:

MAIL TRAIN.

Leave Washington daily (except Sunday) at 6.45 a. m., and arrive at Lynchburg at 5.45 p. m.
Leave Lynchburg at 7 a. m., and arrive at Washington at 5.36 p. m.

EXPRESS TRAIN.

Leave Washington daily (including Sunday) at 6.05 p. m., and arrive at Lynchburg at 6.00 a. m.

Leave Lynchburg at 6.30 p. m., and arrive at Washington at 6.10 a. m.

Both trains making close connections at Lynchburg for all points south and south-west, and at Washington for north and north-west.

First class sleeping cars will be attached to the night trains.

This road is attractive, not only for its comfortable accommodations, but for the fact that it passes the now historic localities of Fairfax, Bull Run, Manassas, Bristoe, Catlett's Rappahannock, Culpeper, Orange and Gordonsville, places of imperishable interest in the popular mind.

Through tickets to all points south and south-west may be had in Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, and at the offices of the road in Washington and Alexandria.
